

Systems Administrator - Senior

Location: MITSC East, Camp Lejeune, NC

Company: First Information Technology Services

Description:

- Under broad direction, lead and coordinate the operational support and implementation activities for Local Area Network (LAN), Campus Area Network (CAN), and Wide Area Network (WAN) service offerings encompassing heterogeneous platforms.
- Assist leadership in determining tactical and strategic direction of the organization as it relates to emerging operational support technologies.
- Research, analyze, and recommend new operational support technologies, tools, and techniques.
- Coach others on the application of new operational support technologies.
- Review distributed computing and network designs to select appropriate operational support strategies and ensure efficient use of resources.
- Conduct system support design and performance evaluation reviews.
- Identify, develop, and update operational support standards and procedures.
- Participate with corporate strategic planning teams.
- Keep abreast of emerging operational support technologies and industry trends.
- Recommend price/performance improvement opportunities.

Requirements:

- 10+ years of related experience
- Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, MIS, Business, or related field
- Secret level security clearance
- At least one of the following certifications: GSEC, Security+ CE, SSCP, or CCNA-Security

Benefits:

- 100% paid premiums for health insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance, short-term and long-term disability, and life insurance for employee and dependents, no deductible for in-network providers
- 15 days Paid Time Off, in addition to paid federal holidays
- 401k with 3% match
- $5,000 annual reimbursement of job-related training classes, seminars, and tuition

How to Apply:

Navigate to the careers section on our website (<http://firstinfotech.com/careers>), select the position, and provide your contact information. You will receive a confirmation email, which will request that you send a reply along with your attached résumé and cover letter.